According to an announcement issued last night by James T. Carroll. Assembly man of the Ninth Assembly District in Brooklyn, the Republican members of the State Legislature will not be "starm-neded" into the passage of "blue lawa." He strongly denounced any Sabbath reforms as proposed by the Lord's Day alliance and other organizations, and said he felt sure the members of the State Legislature "would not listen to the crice of the reactionaries."

Mr. Carroll was a member of the 11th Field Artillery, and saw service at the front with the 53th Division. He lives at 735 Fiftleth street, Brooklyn.

HOUSING CONFERENCE WILL OPEN THURSDAY

AT BOTTOM PRICES New Yorkers to Speak in Bridgeport Sessions.

The annual conference of the National Housing Association will open Thursday in Bridgeport and will last three days. Architects, practical builders, housing experts, engineers, lawyers and business men interested in housing are expected to be present from every part of the country. The sessions will be held at the Hotel Stratfield.

Walter Stabler, comptroller of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of this city, will discuss the plan under which his company has made $50,000,000 available for housing, and has established agencies in more than forty cities to put it into effect.

Other speakers will be Grosvenor Atterbury, Harold G. Aron, Lawson Purdy and George B. Ford, of this city; Edmund S. Wolfe, a banker, of Bridgeport; C. O'Conor Hennessy, president of the Franklin Society for Home Building and Savings; W. H. Ham, manager of the Bridgeport, Housing Company, and Harry Foster Burns of Dorchester, Mass.
